

Fundraising ideas

Whether it's individually or as a group we'll support you to help make the most of your fundraising.

Coffee morning

Try an exciting spin on tea and cake, like Mad Hatter's Tea Party or cake flavoured cocktails.

Feeling Festive

Make the most of special dates in the calendar! Play cupid on Valentine's Day with homemade cards, host a Halloween party or belt out some carols at Christmas.

Garden party

Invite friends & family round for a BBQ, or if you're green fingered, host an open garden for people to admire.

Feed your fundraising

A full stomach makes everyone more generous - host a pot luck lunch and charge a small fee to share in the picnic.

Get sporty

Organise a football or golf tournament - it might be your local club are willing to support you.

Give it up

Chocolate, swearing or driving to work, figure out your vice and give it up!

Make a show of it

Whatever talents you and your friends can showcase to raise vital funds.

Office Antics

Office Olympics are a great way to get the whole office involved and fuel that competitive spirit.

School fundraising

There are lots of ways your school can be involved:

Wear what you want day

Everyone pays £1 to wear their own clothes. Theme your day and have everyone dress as their hero - it's super easy to organise!

Walk

Organise a sponsored walk around the school grounds or playing fields - it's a great way to keep everyone active.

Fairs and Fetes

Hold a stall or collection at your school's Easter, summer or Christmas fete. Could a percentage of the proceeds be donated to your fundraising?

Raise some dough

Bake sales are a fun way to get involved. Hold them in the staff room to keep teachers happy or get pupils involved and sell treats to parents at home time.

Sponsored Silence

How long can you stay silent before talking or giggling?

In School

Does your school have a charity week or adopt a charity for a term? Why not suggest Leeds Cares?

Top Tips:

- Download the Leeds Cares 'in aid of' logo from leeds-cares.org to add to your materials.
- Look at your own connections and think about how they could help.
- Donations don't just have to be money. Raffle prizes and volunteering can all help raise funds.
- Lots of work places have schemes where they will match an employee's fundraising. Make sure you ask the question.
